Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-18 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Raith, U.S. Patent No. 6,493,547.

Regarding claims 1-18 Raith discloses a method for informing a telephone charge to a mobile terminal subscriber in a mobile communication system, the method comprising the steps of: detecting, by a mobile communication exchange, a termination of a telephone call of a mobile terminal; providing, by the mobile communication exchange, charging information responsive to the telephone call; informing, by the mobile communication exchange, the charging information to a charging center; calculating, by the charging center, the telephone charge using the charging information received from the mobile communication exchange and informing the calculated telephone charge to the mobile communication exchange; and, transmitting, by the mobile communication exchange, the telephone charge information received from the charging center via a base station in communication with the mobile terminal (col. 4, line 63-col. 5, line 5).

Raith also discloses displaying charge information to a caller during a call, after a call is terminated, an accumulated and a total charge (col. 8, lines 29-55, col. 11, lines 24-44). Raith further discloses wherein the charging information can be displayed to user using alphanumeric format (SMS format) (col. 11, lines 14-17).

Conclusion

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Abdella, U.S. Patent No. 6,044,258 discloses a system and method for updating a time remaining value in a cellular system.

Lewis et al, U.S. Patent No. 5,684,861 discloses an apparatus and method for monitoring cellular telephone usage.
